

CAMI Research Expands Distributorship Network ... Again!

February 25, 2016

CAMI Research Inc. (Acton, MA) a new distributor for its CableEye cable and harness testing systems. ALLDAQ joins Meilhaus in serving CableEye customers in Germany, Austria, and German-speaking Switzerland, and is CAMI's 21st global distributor.

A leader in development of PC-based Cable & Wire Harness Test Systems for over 20 years, CAMI offers the CableEye suite of Low and High Voltage (HiPot) products. Like Semicon (Poland) and LK Hitech (Korea) who joined the network recently, ALLDAQ sought out their distributorship having been impressed with the quality, versatility, and ease of use of the testers.

Germering-based ALLDAQ was established as a new business unit of ALLNET GmbH in 2014. "DAQ" stands for "Data Acquisition" encompassing the complete field of data collection from the field of professional measurement technology.

ALLDAQ joins seven other distributors currently certified to calibrate CableEye testers viz. Arnold Trading (Israel), Cimbrian (UK), DEMS (France), Globaledge (Japan), LK Hitech (Korea), Meilhaus (Germany), Mercury Electronics (India), Smarteam (China).

CAMI is also seeking a distributor in Spain with experience in sales, promotion, & distribution of electronic test equipment.
